[3] As described in the UPS Rate and Service Guide and the UPS Tariff/Terms and Conditions of Service.

[4] This Demand Surcharge will apply through September 28, 2024 only to qualifying customers who (1) have been billed for more than 1,000 total packages in any week after February 2020, or (2) have been billed for more than 10 combined Large Packages or packages requiring Additional Handling in any week after February 2020, or (3) signed up for a new UPS account after December 31, 2020. If any of these criteria are met, the Demand Surcharges apply until further notice to all Large Packages and packages requiring Additional Handling. Customer's volume includes any affiliated accounts and other accounts related to customer, as determined by UPS in its sole and unlimited discretion. Beginning September 29, 2024, this Demand Surcharge will apply to all customers.

M. Demand Surcharge – Applied to UPS® Air, UPS® Ground Residential and UPS SurePost® Packages

A Demand Surcharge will apply to all UPS Air[3], UPS Ground Residential[3] and UPS SurePost packages:

Service Level	October 27, 2024 until November 23, 2024	November 24, 2024 until December 28, 2024	December 29, 2024 until January 18, 2025
UPS SurePost®	$0.25 Per package	$0.50 Per package	$0.25 Per package
UPS Ground Residential	$0.25 Per package	$0.50 Per package	$0.25 Per package
UPS Next Day Air	$1.00 Per package	$2.00 Per package	$1.00 Per package
All Other UPS Air	$1.00 Per package	$2.00 Per package	$1.00 Per package

In addition, a Demand Surcharge will apply to certain UPS Air Residential[3], UPS Ground Residential[3] and UPS SurePost packages, for customers who are billed for more than 20,000 packages during any week following October 2023.[5] The Demand Surcharge amounts below will apply on a weekly basis to each package based on the percentage to the Baseline[6] of weekly average volume for each service level, during the specified Demand Period. The highest surcharge amount applicable to the volume in excess of the Baseline weekly average volume in a given week will apply to all packages over 105% of the Baseline weekly average volume in that week within each service level.[5]

	October 27, 2024 until January 18, 2025
Service Level	>105% to 125% of Baseline Volume	>125% to 150% of Baseline Volume	>150% to 200% of Baseline Volume	>200% to 300% of Baseline Volume	>300% to 400% of Baseline Volume	>400% of Baseline Volume
UPS SurePost®	$1.50 Per package	$2.05 Per package	$2.35 Per package	$2.85 Per package	$4.90 Per package	$7.05 Per package
UPS Ground Residential	$1.50 Per package	$2.05 Per package	$2.35 Per package	$2.85 Per package	$4.90 Per package	$7.05 Per package
UPS Next Day Air Residential	$2.65 Per package	$3.20 Per package	$3.50 Per package	$4.00 Per package	$6.05 Per package	$8.25 Per package
All Other UPS Air Residential	$2.65 Per package	$3.20 Per package	$3.50 Per package	$4.00 Per package	$6.05 Per package	$8.25 Per package

[5] Applies to customers whose combined volume of Ground Residential, SurePost, Next Day Air Residential and All Other Air Residential packages has exceeded 20,000 packages in any week after October 2023, regardless of the volume of customer's shipments for any particular service level. Once this aggregate threshold has been met, the Demand Surcharges apply until further notice to all service levels. The Demand Surcharges apply to all Ground Residential, SurePost, Next Day Air Residential and All Other Air Residential packages in any weekly invoice period exceeding the Baseline volume for the applicable service level. For each service level each week, the amount of the surcharge for all packages over 105% of the Baseline for each service level is the highest applicable surcharge for the service level. For example, if the shipper has volume in a week of 175% of the Baseline average weekly volume for UPS Ground Residential, then each UPS Ground Residential package over 105% of the Baseline average weekly volume for UPS Ground Residential will be assessed a surcharge of $2.35 (not just those over 150% of Baseline average weekly volume for UPS Ground Residential). For holiday weeks that are not full UPS operating weeks, the surcharge will apply to all packages in that weekly invoice period exceeding 105% of the customer's average daily baseline volume for the applicable service level multiplied by the number of full UPS operating days in that week. Customer's volume includes volume from any affiliated accounts and other accounts related to customer, as determined by UPS in its sole and unlimited discretion.

[6] The "Baseline" volume is the customer's average weekly volume for the applicable service level for June 2024 (June 2, 2024 through June 29, 2024). If customer's average weekly volume for the applicable service level from September 1, 2024 through September 28, 2024 is less than 80% of its average weekly volume from June 2, 2024 through June 29, 2024, as determined by UPS in its sole and unlimited discretion, then customer's average weekly volume from September 1, 2024 through September 28, 2024 will be used as the Baseline volume.
